

China and the United States: Old Instruments and New Music featuring Wu Man

In collaboration with
The La Jolla Symphony and Chorus and
The School of International Relations and Pacific Studies, UC San Diego

The La Jolla Symphony and Chorus in collaboration with UC San Diego's School of International Relations and Pacific Studies invites you to join in an informative and fun event that has been created around the February 6, 2010 concert featuring Wu Man titled "China and the United States, Old Instruments and New Music." Peter Gourevitch, IR/PS Acting Dean, and Steven Schick, LJS&C Music Director, begin at 4:30 pm with opening remarks followed by a panel discussion of distinguished faculty: Susan Shirk, Barry Naughton, and Paul Pickowicz. A buffet dinner follows the program and then guests join the LJS&C for the pre-concert lecture and concert performance. The event will take place in the International Center, just steps away from Mandeville Auditorium.

RSVP: The event is open to the public, HOWEVER, SEATING IS LIMITED. The cost of $50 per person includes the panel discussion, dinner and concert. For current La Jolla Symphony & Chorus ticket-holders, the cost is just $25. Advance registration is required.

Secure your reservations by mailing checks (payable to: UC Regents) to Kay-Marie Moreno, c/o 9500 Gilman Drive, #0519, La Jolla, CA 92093-0519. Deadline for reservations is February 1, 2010.
