1986-87 SEASON SUBSCRIPTION ORDER FORM

For the 1986-87 season, the La Jolla Civic-University Symphony Orchestra and Chorus Association offers seven concerts for the price of six. A season's subscription guarantees seating for these seven concerts, include include the always-popular Messiah sing-along in December and the Young Artists Concert in June. Ticket Prices — which have traditionally been the lowest for a symphony series in the San Diego area — will remain the same for next season: $5 per concert for adults and $3 per concert for seniors and students with a valid ID.

Current subscribers who re-subscribe will be given their present seats and present concert dates unless they wish to make a change. Those who wish to make changes should call the symphony office (452-4637) and leave a message.

Such affordable ticket prices are due to the support of the Symphony Association and the University of California San Diego Music Department, which share equally the support of this organization. The Association presents the orchestra and chorus's concerts, helps develop audiences, and shares the cost of music purchase and rental, as well as sponsoring the Young Artists Competition. Your contribution, separate from subscription purchase (not included in the cost of tickets), helps guarantee the continuation of these cultural assets for the San Diego community.
