San Diego's oldest and most distinguished non-professional orchestra and chorus will bring together all of the talents that have resulted in sold-out performances for the past two seasons.

Over the last several decades this organization has consistently offered the most interesting programs at the lowest prices in San Diego County. The 1989-90 season will continue this tradition with a wide selection of attractive and diverse soloists and repertory.

Of special interest will be the opening concert in September featuring the internationally acclaimed talents of San Diego's finest guitarists that is selling out very quickly. Please note: Subscribers will receive priority seating for this concert.

If you receive more than one, please pass it to a friend. Thank you.
